He was asked if the note he presented was made by Caleb Stetson, who keeps in Broad-street; he replied that it was. He was then told it would be discounted, and he could leave it and call in a short time and get the money. As he turned to go out of the bank, casting his eye into the Directors' room, he was identified by one to whom he was ors' room, he was identified by one to whom he was personally known. The note was then shown to the Teller, and he was suspicious it was a counterfeit; the note was directly sent to the counting-room of Caleb Stetson, and thereupon declared a forgery.

Gentlemen—Parental feelings induce us to make the following statement of least in relation to the important cure of our little daughter, wholly effected by the use of Sands's Sarda parilla. For nearly three years she was efficted with a most inveterate cruption on the body, which at times was so bad, connected with internal disease, that we deep with other hard, and gradially spread until the whole head was enveloped, and then it attacked the ears, and ran down the neck, and continuing to increase until it covered the most of the bady, it commenced with a small pumple or pusting, from which water at first discharged this produced great tiching and during; then matter or pus formed, the skin cracked and bled, and the pas discharged they. The sufferings of the chief were to great an almost wholly to prevent natural rest, and the color from the discharges to offereive as to make it discharly the passes and the read for the chief was all used. Said Head and general Said Heaum. We tried various remedies, with intle bonels, and considered her case almost beyond the reach of mechanic plant from the Known virtue of your Sarsaparilla, we were induced to give it a trial. Before the first botter, that we could scarced give eredence to the evidence of our own eyes. We continued its use for a few weeks, and the result is a perfect cure. To all Parshis we would say: If you have children suffering with any disease of the kin, use Sands's Sarsaparilla. With feelings of gratitude and recepe, we are yours. &c.
